

Grammar training

Gerund or Infinitive?

Complete the sentences with the correct verb form.

Sophie: I can't go on to pretend / pretending everything's fine.

Ryan: I just try to make / making things work, but it never feels right.

Sophie: Maybe we should stop to hurt / hurting each other and move on.

Leo: I forgot to bring / bringing my passport.

Emma: Oh no! Well, try to stay / staying calm and call the hotel.

Leo: Good idea. I need to stop to panick / panicking

Ben: I can't believe we missed the flight. I went on to check / checking my emails instead of the time.

Nina: You really need to stop to get / getting distracted and try to stay / staying focused.

Ben: Yeah, I'll remember to double-check / double-checking everything next time.

Katie: I tried to swim, but I always forget to breathe / breathing properly.

Sam: Go on to practice / practicing, and you'll get the hang of it.

Katie: Thanks! I'll stop to doubt / doubting myself and just keep trying.

Liam: I'm a bit afraid to climb / climbing this high. What if I fall?

Ben: It's okay! Just focus on your grip and try taking slow, steady steps.

Liam: Alright. I'll give it a shot. But honestly, I don't remember to agree / agreeing to something this extreme!

Maya: I always forget to check / checking the weather before planning my outfit.

Sophie: Just try to layer / layering your clothes, so you can adjust if it gets warm or cold.

Maya: Good idea.

Customer: I tried to return / returning the shoes, but the seller refused.

Manager: Did you remember to bring / bringing the receipt?

Customer: Oh no! I completely forgot. I should stop to be / being so careless.

Olivia: Let's stop to take / taking some pictures of the view. It's beautiful here.

James: Sure! And then we can go on to explore / exploring the cave we read about.

Olivia: I just hope we can find it.