

Past Simple and Past Progressive Review

→ Past Progressive

We usually use the Past Progressive for an action that:

1. was in progress at a particular time in the past.
2. took place over a long period of time in the past.
3. was happening at the same time as another action in the past.

→ Read the sentences below. Match each sentence to its use above.

- a. Yesterday while I was working in my garden, something was moving in the grass.
- b. Last week, were you traveling in Everglades Park?
- c. At 7 o'clock, a huge iguana was walking across my garden.

Grammar Appendix, page 238

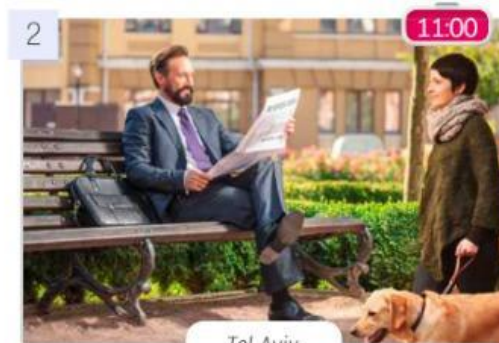

A

Look at these different places in Israel and say what was happening in each place at the time mentioned. Use the words below each picture and the Past Progressive. You can use the words to write one or two sentences.

Agamon, Hula Valley or Hula Lake

Itai and Tali / ride / bikes
Birds / fly / in the sky

Tel Aviv

A man / read / newspaper
Yuval / take / her dog for a walk

1. _____

2. _____

B

Look at the pictures that Yaniv took when he was on vacation in Africa. Write questions about what the animals were doing, using the words below.

1. What / the monkeys / eat?
2. the cheetah / run?
3. What / the lion / watch?
4. Which / animals / drink / water?
5. Where / crocodile / swim?
6. What / the zebras / do?