Discrimination: Can You See It?

discrimination = treating someone differently because s/he is different from you

Look at the people next to you. List 5 ways they are different from you:

1) _____
2) _____
3) _____
4) _____
5) _____

Can you SEE all the ways the people are different? ____ For example, can you SEE a person's nationality? ____ Can you SEE a person's age? ____ Can you SEE a person's race? ____ Can you SEE a person's religion? ____

Watch the videos. If you need captions, click HERE1 or HERE2.

https://youtu.be/rNjaLAib83o?si=7nnftdNt56ExJGV9

https://youtu.be/j3cN_O2lnaI?si=PxN6izzzCC1YE7HV

Does this video show discrimination? ____ What kind? _____

How was the person discriminated against? _____

_____

How would you have handled the discrimination? _____

_____

Does this video show discrimination? ____ What kind? _____

How was this person discriminated against? _____

_____

How would you have handled the discrimination? _____

_____

Tell another way people discriminate. _____

In your opinion, do laws against discrimination stop discrimination? ____

Write 3 or more sentences to support your answer. _____

_____

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Sometimes discrimination is passive.
This means a person is not doing anything to discriminate,
BUT s/he is letting discrimination happen.
Watch the video. Click HERE if you need captions.

https://youtu.be/X9tqaOuGt5A?si=p2iiSjbY6GVu9hf3

In the video, the children are going to race, but they all have different starting places. If a child answered "yes" to some questions, they could move ahead of the other runners. Tell 3 of these questions: 1) _____ _____ 2) _____ 3) _____

What were the adults trying to show the children about success in life?

_____

Some people start life with more advantages. Advantages are things that give you a better chance of winning or succeeding.

What advantages does a person who has 2 parents who speak English have? How will this help him/her succeed? _____ _____ How does having blue or green eyes gives a person an advantage? _____ Why does it matter if the people on TV look like you? _____ _____ Why is having the same color skin as the leaders of your country an advantage? _____

In your opinion, was the children's race fair? ____ Explain. _____ _____ If one group of people does not have as many advantages as another group of people, is it fair to expect both groups to get the same education and earn (make in their jobs) the same amounts of money? ____ Write 4 or more sentences to explain your answer. _____

_____

_____

LIVEWORKSHEETS