

Pivot Points All-in-One Indicator for MetaTrader 4 Download - Free - [TradingFinder]

The Pivot Points All-in-One Indicator is a practical tool for identifying pivot points and MT4 Support and resistance indicator, designed for the MetaTrader 4 (MT4) platform. This indicator calculates pivot points based on the previous day's high, low, and close prices and plots the pivot point line (displayed in blue).

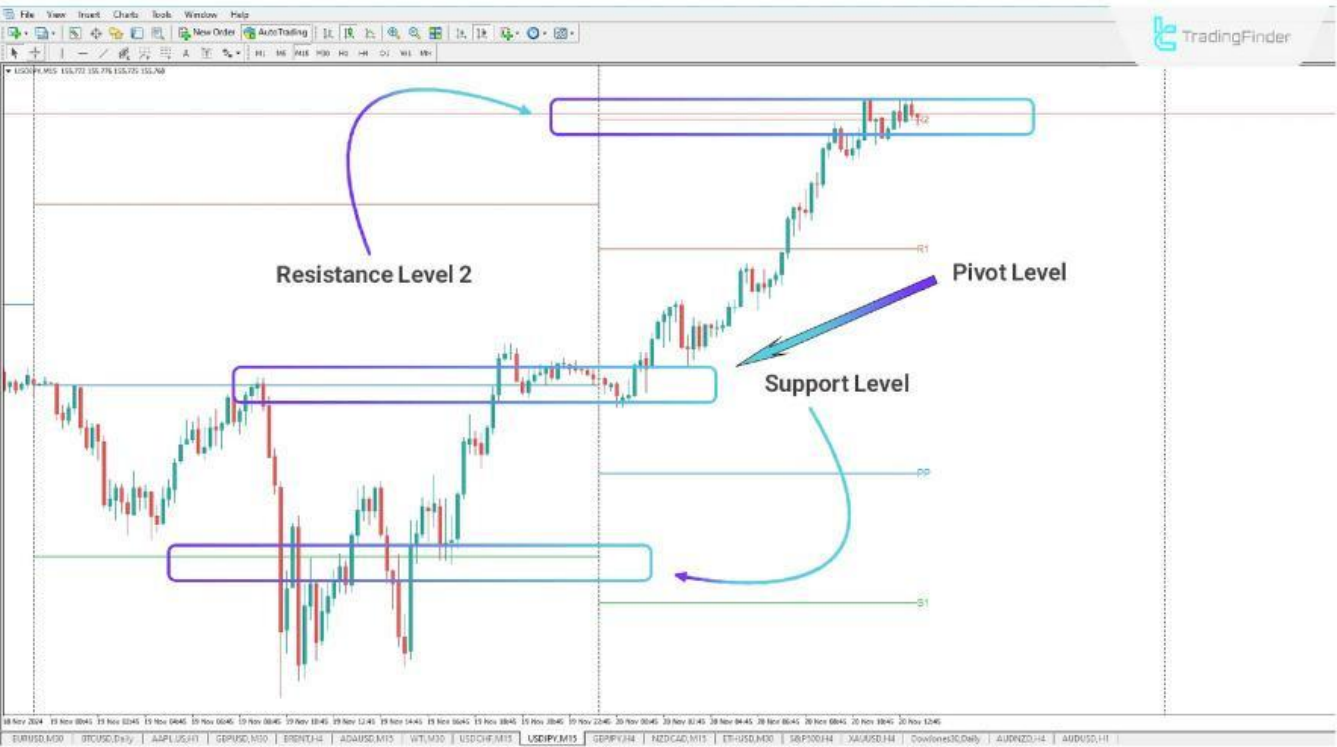

- ⚡ Resistance levels are displayed as red lines.
- ⚡ Support levels are displayed as green lines.

These levels serve as high-priority areas on the chart where prices often react. Traders can use this indicator to identify entry and exit points and analyze price behavior near these levels.

Bullish Trading Levels

USD/JPY 15-Minute Chart

In the 15-minute USD/JPY chart, the price breaks above the pivot level pulls back to it, and then resumes its upward trend.

The Pivot Points All-in-One Indicator:

- ⚡ Accurately plots support (green) and resistance (red) levels.
- ⚡ Displays reaction zones.

In this case:

- ⚡ The price crossing above the pivot indicates a shift to an uptrend.
- ⚡ A pullback to the pivot confirms its strength and provides an opportunity for entering buy trades.

Traders can:

- ⚡ Use subsequent resistance levels as price targets (take profit).
- ⚡ Anticipate potential price reactions around these levels.

Due to its simplicity and effectiveness, this indicator is a valuable tool for making decisions in short-term trades and leveraging key price levels.

Bearish Trading Levels

NZD/CAD 15-Minute Chart

In the 15-minute NZD/CAD chart, the price initially touches the pivot level and, failing to break through, begins a downward trend. After breaking below the pivot level, the downtrend sharply continues.

The Pivot Points All-in-One Indicator:

- ⚡ Highlights the pivot level as a critical zone, with its breach confirming a trend reversal.
- ⚡ Displays support and resistance levels where the price is likely to react.

In this scenario:

- ⚡ The initial rejection at the pivot level signals early signs of price weakness.
- ⚡ After breaking below the pivot, the downtrend intensifies.
- ⚡ The price eventually reacts positively to one of the support levels displayed by the indicator.

This indicator:

- ⚡ It helps traders identify high-risk and high-potential zones by highlighting key levels.
- ⚡ It is a simple yet effective tool for making trading decisions, setting price targets, and placing stop-loss orders.
