Listening

People and Places

Listen to the audio. Decide if the statements are true or false.

1. Residents of warm regions are often described as friendly and easy-going.
2. People living in tropical climates are usually great at planning for the future.
3. Harsh, snowy environments encourage people to be well-prepared and practical.
4. People from rainy regions tend to have excellent outdoor survival skills.
5. People from rainy environments rarely participate in creative hobbies like writing or painting.
6. Individuals from desert regions are known for their skill at organizing fun activities.
7. People from mountain regions often have strong physical endurance.

Match each type of weather (1-5) with the correct effect (a-e).

1. What skill are people from tropical climates less likely to develop?

a) Calmness and strategic planning
b) Excellent communication skills
c) Living in the moment
d) Embracing a carefree lifestyle

2. Why do people from cold, snowy regions often have strong problem-solving skills? _____

a) They spend a lot of time outdoors
b) They often deal with harsh conditions
c) They enjoy working with large groups
d) They live in isolated communities

3. What makes mountain people less skilled at bargaining or negotiation? _____

a) They enjoy working in large groups
b) They spend too much time socializing
c) They focus only on creative activities
d) They rely more on self-sufficiency