Vocabulary training

Climate and Weather

Match two halves of a sentence.

1. The rainstorm washed away my worries,	because the fog was really thick.
2. The sudden thaw made me appreciate	the flowers will all die by morning.
3. We couldn't see the road clearly	leaving me feeling refreshed and inspired.
4. When the snowstorm hit,	the lake started to freeze over.
5. If the frost continues,	how quickly things can change and renew themselves.
6. After the tornado warning,	that people were evacuated immediately.
7. As the temperature continued to drop,	puddles still covered the ground.
8. During the heat wave,	all the flights were canceled immediately.
9. The volcano eruption was so powerful	everyone rushed to find shelter.
10. The rainbow appearing after the rain	everyone tried to stay indoors to avoid the scorching sun.
11. Although the rainstorm ended hours ago,	but I knew the sunshine was only hidden, not gone.
12. Whenever the fog clears,	people often go ice skating there.
13. When the lake freezes over,	the view from the mountain is absolutely breathtaking.
14. The overcast sky felt heavy,	was a vivid reminder of the beauty that follows challenges.

English__on_the_go

LIVEWORKSHEETS