

Vocabulary training

Climate and Weather

Match two halves of a sentence.

1. The rainstorm washed away my worries,
2. The sudden thaw made me appreciate
3. We couldn't see the road clearly
4. When the snowstorm hit,
5. If the frost continues,
6. After the tornado warning,
7. As the temperature continued to drop,
8. During the heat wave,
9. The volcano eruption was so powerful
10. The rainbow appearing after the rain
11. Although the rainstorm ended hours ago,
12. Whenever the fog clears,
13. When the lake freezes over,
14. The overcast sky felt heavy,

- because the fog was really thick.
- the flowers will all die by morning.
- leaving me feeling refreshed and inspired.
- the lake started to freeze over.
- how quickly things can change and renew themselves.
- that people were evacuated immediately.
- puddles still covered the ground.
- all the flights were canceled immediately.
- everyone rushed to find shelter.
- everyone tried to stay indoors to avoid the scorching sun.
- but I knew the sunshine was only hidden, not gone.
- people often go ice skating there.
- the view from the mountain is absolutely breathtaking.
- was a vivid reminder of the beauty that follows challenges.