

HOUSE AND HOME IDIOMS

Match the idioms with the correct definition and make your own sentences using these idioms

- | | |
|--------------------------------------|--|
| 1. safe as houses | a. be free (in a restaurant) |
| 2. get on like a house on fire | b. make oneself comfortable |
| 3. eat someone out of house and home | c. get on very well with someone |
| 4. get your own house in order | d. very safe |
| 5. be on the house | e. to make someone angry or crazy |
| 6. bring down the house | f. tidy up your own affairs before criticising other people |
| 7. make oneself at home | g. eat a lot of food |
| 8. on the home straight | h. not thinking clearly |
| 9. no one's at home | i. on the last part of journey |

House or home?

Fill in the blanks with correct
idioms in correct form.

- John is a funny comedian. His jokes always
- Kim and Karen They are good friends and do everything together.
- At the new Italian restaurant, customers get dessert if they order a meal.
- "When they stayed with me, they!" There was never food in the fridge.
- "You should before telling me what to do!"

- Hello, John. Come in. Make yourself at house / home.
- I met my old friend yesterday. We talked the whole night. We got on like a house / home on fire.
- What are we going to do with all these files? Where are we going to find a house / home for them in the office?
- My flatmate never cleans his dishes. I think I have to tell him few home / house truths.
- His performance was excellent. He really brought the home / house down.
- It might look dangerous, but actually it is as safe as home / houses.