Question 12-16. Read the following passage and choose the correct answer for each of the questions.

Dogs use their voices and bodies to talk to people. Watch a dog's actions. You can learn to tell what it is trying to say.

A dog shows when it is happy to see you. It looks at you and wags its tail, or it runs around quickly in circles. Some happy dogs will jump up on you. Unlike a happy dog, a scared dog acts differently.

A frightened dog puts its tail down between its legs. Some growl while others try to hide. Dogs like being with people, so they try to get your attention. They tap you with a paw, or place their head in your lap. They also might look at you and bark or howl.

Dogs show when they want to be left alone, too. A dog that is upset will bare its teeth, or it will growl. Both are signs to stay away!
