Bill's Diary

I'm often late for class. I get up early, but I have so many things to do in the morning. Right after I get up at 7 o'clock, I take a shower and make breakfast. I usually have a vegetable sandwich and fruit juice. They are very healthy. But after I eat them, it's already 8:30. I only have 30 minutes before my first class starts. I clean my room and pack my bag. Then I hurry to class, but it's already past nine. What should I do? I need some help.

That was my diary from last year, but don't worry! Now my daily life is different thanks to my friend's advice. Here's what my typical morning is like now.

I get up at 7:30 a.m. I take a shower and have breakfast. I cut up some vegetables and fruits the evening before, so it doesn't take much time to make breakfast. Also, I clean my room and pack my bag in the afternoon. That way, I don't need to rush. After breakfast, I still have a lot of time. I can read the newspaper and check my emails. And I'm not late for class now!
