Indicator in Uptrend

In the 1-hour time frame of the USD/CHF currency pair, the histogram turns green when the Turbo CCI crosses above the zero line, and the Trend CCI also remains above zero.

This indicates that bullish momentum is being strengthened and that there is a good opportunity to enter a buy trade.

Additionally, if the Turbo CCI rebounds upward near the zero line after a pullback, it may confirm the continuation of the uptrend.

Indicator in Downtrend

When the Turbo CCI crosses the zero line, and the Trend CCI is below zero, the histogram turns red in a downtrend. This indicates strengthening bearish momentum and a suitable opportunity for a sell trade.

Furthermore, if the Turbo CCI moves downward near the zero line after a brief rise, it can confirm the continuation of the downtrend.
