The diagram illustrates the relationship between ordinal numbers and their corresponding adjectives. It features five blue numbers at the top: 4th, 2nd, 3rd, 5th, and 1st. Below each number is its corresponding adjective: second, fifth, first, fourth, and third. A blue curved line connects the 4th and 2nd numbers to the words 'fourth' and 'fifth' respectively, indicating a non-standard correspondence for these two specific numbers.
