A good start to the day

What do you do in the morning? Do you get up early or late? We learn about the mornings of four famous businesspeople. Is your morning like this?

For Arianna Huffington, sleep's very important. She sleeps for eight hours every night. In the morning, she exercises. Arianna's breakfast is a cup of coffee.

Elon Musk, the owner of the car company Tesla, doesn't get up very early. He usually sleeps for six hours and gets up at 7 a.m. Musk's house is very busy in the morning, because he has five sons! Musk usually writes some e-mails, and then he goes to his office by car.

Sheryl Sandberg's mornings are different. She works at Facebook and she gets to the office at 7 a.m.! She always leaves work at 5:30 p.m. and has dinner at home with her children.

Jack Dorsey works at Twitter. In the morning, he makes coffee and then goes to work on foot. His apartment's a long way from his office, but it's good exercise. Jack listens to a podcast on his phone during the walk.
