Second Conditional

The second conditional is used for unreal situations in the future that are not impossible, but could be difficult to come true. It is also used for hypothetical situations and to give advice. NOTE: Use "were" and not "was" to give advice.

IF CLAUSE OR CONDITION = PAST SIMPLE If I won the lottery,	MAIN CLAUSE OR RESULT = WOULD + BASE VERB I would travel the world.
MAIN CLAUSE OR RESULT = WOULD + BASE VERB I would travel the world	IF CLAUSE OR CONDITION = PAST SIMPLE if I won the lottery.

Write the verbs in brackets in the correct from to create second conditional sentences.

1. If mom _____ (be) here, I'm sure she _____ (cook) us lunch.
2. What _____ (do) if you _____ (win) a million dollars?
3. If I _____ (find) money on the street, I _____ (hide) it in my bedroom.
4. Tim _____ (be) sad if his girlfriend _____ (break up) with him.
5. If we _____ (not catch) the eight o'clock train, we _____ (arrive) too late.
6. Amy _____ (not be) upset if you _____ (tell) her the truth.
7. If I _____ (know) how to speak German, I _____ (do) it all the time.
8. Peter _____ (make) a cake if he _____ (know) how to cook.
9. If my wife _____ (be) a famous singer, she _____ (earn) a lot of money.
10. My son _____ (not learn) so quickly if he _____ (not have) such a good teacher.
11. If you _____ (stay) at home, you _____ (not see) Mike at the birthday party.
12. If someone _____ (steal) my wallet, I _____ (report) it to the police right away.

LIVEWORKSHEETS