

Match the terms to the possible definitions.

DISTRIBUTION

It is the process of transforming agricultural inputs into outputs.

SUPPLY CHAIN

It refers to the processes and systems used to move agricultural products to the end consumer.

PRODUCTION

It is the act of using or eating agricultural products.

CONSUMPTION

It is a value chain or network of actors, activities, and technologies interconnected to produce, process, distribute, and commercialize agricultural products.