

"Linger" by The Cranberries

If you, if you could _____
Don't let it _____, don't let it fade
I'm sure, I'm not being _____
But it's just your _____
It's tearing me apart
Is ruining everything
I _____, I swore I would be true
And honey, so did you
So why were you holding her hand?
Is that the way we stand?
Were you lying all the time?
Was it just a game to you?
But I'm in so deep
You know I'm such a fool for you
You got me wrapped around your _____
Do you have to let it _____?
Do you have to, do you have to, do you have to let it _____?
Oh, I thought the world of you
I thought nothing could go wrong
But I was wrong, I was wrong
If you, if you could get by Trying not to _____
Things wouldn't be so confused
And I wouldn't feel so used
But you always really knew
I just wanna be with you
And I'm in so deep
You know I'm such a fool for you
You got me wrapped around your finger
Do you have to let it linger?
Do you have to, do you have to, do you have to let it linger?
And I'm in so deep
You know I'm such a fool for you
You got me wrapped around your _____
Do you have to let it _____?
Do you have to, do you have to, do you have to let it _____?
You know I'm such a fool for you

You got me wrapped around your _____
Do you have to let it _____?
Do you have to, do you have to, do you have to let it _____?

Context: "Linger" is an emotional ballad where the singer expresses the pain and frustration caused by a relationship in which she feels betrayed. The song's main theme is deception and the emotional turmoil that comes from being misled by someone who promised to be faithful. The lyrics suggest a sense of confusion and vulnerability, as the singer tries to make sense of the lies and unfaithful actions of her partner.

Pronunciation Activity with Irish Accent

Instructions: Listen to the song "Linger" by The Cranberries and pay close attention to how Dolores O'Riordan pronounces certain words. Focus on the following aspects:

- Vowel sounds: Irish accents often feature clearer, sharper vowel sounds.
- Consonants: The "r" sound is often rolled or pronounced more strongly in Irish English.
- Syllable emphasis: Some words may have a different emphasis on syllables compared to other English accents.

Words to Practice:

Here's a list of words from the song to focus on.

Finger

- Standard English: The "r" is often softer or sometimes barely heard.
- Irish English: The "r" sound is rolled or pronounced clearly at the end. It is stronger and may be a bit more distinct.
- Tip: Make sure to emphasize the "r" at the end of the word, and try to pronounce the vowel sounds more clearly.

Linger

- Standard English: The "r" sound may be soft or even dropped in certain dialects, especially in more relaxed speech.
- Irish English: The "r" is pronounced more clearly and can be rolled or pronounced strongly.
- Tip: Focus on rolling the "r" and keeping the vowel sound clear, especially in the second syllable "ger."

Used

- Standard English: The "u" sound is often pronounced as a diphthong like "you-zd."
- Irish English: The "u" sound is often more like the "oo" in "food." It's a clearer, sharper vowel sound.
- Tip: Try to pronounce the "u" as a long "oo" sound, so "used" becomes "oozd."

Lie

- Standard English: The vowel sound in "lie" is a long "ai" as in "my."
- Irish English: The vowel sound is more of a long "ah" sound, pronounced a bit more forcefully.
- Tip: When saying "lie," focus on making the "i" sound more like "ah" rather than "ai."

Confused

- Standard English: The "u" sound can sometimes be pronounced as a schwa sound (ə) in rapid speech.
- Irish English: The "u" in "confused" is pronounced as a more distinct, clear "oo" sound, like in "food."
- Tip: Make sure to pronounce the "oo" sound more clearly, and the "ed" at the end is typically pronounced like "d" (not "ed" as in American English).
