10 Grammar 2

1 Read the sentences. Write P if it's a problem, R if it's a reason or S if it's a suggestion.

1 I haven't had lunch. R

2 What about looking at your book now? ☐

3 I'm tired. ☐

4 I haven't studied for the exam. ☐

5 I'm hungry. ☐

6 What about getting another one? ☐

7 I'm sad. ☐

8 Let's make some pasta! ☐

9 I've played football all morning. ☐

10 Let's sit on the sofa and watch TV! ☐

11 I'm worried. ☐

12 My plant has died. ☐

2 Use the sentences in Activity 1 to complete the dialogues.

1

What's the matter?

I'm sad.

Why?

My plant has died.

_____

2

What's the matter?

_____

Why?

_____

Let's sit on the sofa and watch TV!

3

What's the matter?

_____

Why?

I haven't studied for the exam.

_____

4

What's the matter?

I'm hungry.

Why?

_____

_____

3 Write a reason and a suggestion for each of these problems.

	Reason	Suggestion
1 He's scared.	He doesn't like flying.	He could take the train.
2 He's angry.
3 She's thirsty.
4 She's tired.

Photocopiable © Macmillan Publishers Limited 2017
LIVEWORKSHEETS