

Breaking sentences into parts

1. Draw a mark where the pause is supposed to be made.

- "A significant decision was made by the city council during their recent meeting to improve the city's public transport system. As a result, more buses will be provided along key routes in the coming months, aiming to reduce traffic congestion and improve accessibility for residents."

2. Record yourself saying the following text.

A green rectangular bar with rounded corners, likely representing a recording progress or status indicator.

3. Say it again, so the microphone can detect your voice.

A white rectangular area with a torn left edge, containing horizontal lines. A faint, hand-drawn line graph is visible, starting at the top left, curving down to the middle, and then continuing as a straight line down to the bottom right.