Exercise 7: Read the passage and answer the questions below.

It was the first day of our trip to Morocco. We had decided to drive into the desert to visit some beautiful caves where we could take some photos. We rented a car and made sure we had packed a lunch and plenty of water before starting our journey. After driving through the desert for about 4 hours, we finally arrived at the caves. They were spectacular! It was amazing to see the incredible sculptures that nature had carved out of the sandstone. After we had explored the caves and taken lots of pictures, we ate our lunch inside a cave that looked like a palace with beautiful pillars and a roof as tall as a cathedral. While we were eating, we suddenly heard a strange howling noise outside. We immediately ran to the entrance of the cave and were astonished to see a massive column of sand approaching us from across the desert. The sand was swirling angrily and moving rapidly toward us. We thought it would sweep us and our car away. A few moments later, ...
