

Instructions

In order to have track of your grades, please follow the complete steps to send your results.

Paso 1

LIVEWORKSHEETS

¡Terminado!

Paso 2

¿Qué quieres hacer ahora?

Comprobar mis respuestas

Enviar mis resultados a mi profesor/a

Paso 3

Introduce tu nombre completo:

Curso/grupo: 607

Asignatura: Inglés

Introduce el email o código clave de tu profesor/a:

Vanessamtzmunguia@gmail.com

Enviar

Steps to send your results.

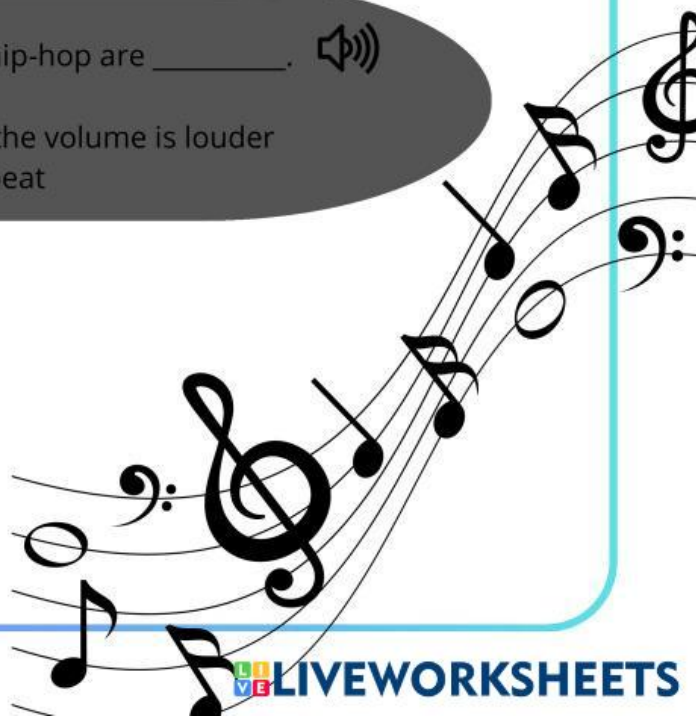

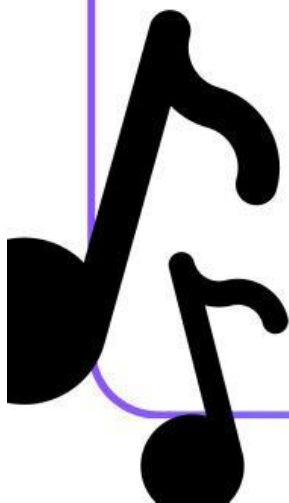

SUBJECT: ENGLISH VI PARTIAL: 2nd DATE: _____
TEACHER: PATRICIA VANESSA MARTINEZ MUNGUIA PARTIAL: _____ GRADE: _____
STUDENT: _____

MAIN IDEAS: Listen. Choose the correct answer.

1. The speakers are talking about _____.
a. music style b. noise-cancelling earphones c. headaches
2. The reason for one of the speaker's headaches is _____.
a. loud music b. noise-cancelling earphones c. loud people
3. One advantage of noise-cancelling earphones is that they _____.
a. block outside noise b. the volume is louder c. prevent hearing
4. The female speaker believes that rap and hip-hop are _____.
a. the same genres of music b. the volume is louder
c. very similar in beat

DETAILS: Listen. Answer T (true) or F (false).

5. With noise-cancelling earphones, listeners can enjoy high-quality sound at a low volume.

a) True

b) False

6. Noise-cancelling earphones often cause headaches.

a) True

b) False

7. Hip-hop music generally has a slower beat than rap music.

a) True

b) False

8. Rap music lyrics often comment on social problems in our society.

a) True

b) False

9. The speaker can relate to pop music more than rap music.

a) True

b) False

10. Rapping is speaking the lyrics of a song rather than singing them.

a) True

b) False

11. Wearing baggy jeans and expensive sneakers are examples of hip-hop subculture.

a) True

b) False

12. The speaker compares reggae music to rap music.

a) True

b) False

LISTENING SKILL: Listen. Match the question with a reason.

13. Why are people able to dance to hip-hop music?

a. It helps the speaker to concentrate.

14. Why does the speaker believe that hip-hop is its own music category?

b. It has genres of its own.

15. Why doesn't the speaker like pop music?

c. The speaker doesn't relate to it.

16. Why does the speaker like rap music?

d. It has a fast and energetic beat.

LISTENING SKILL: Listen. Match the question with a reason.

main reason

reason

because one reason

so

- ▶ 17. You can't hear me _____ your music is so loud!
- ▶ 18. That's probably _____ you're always complaining about headaches.
- ▶ 19. I think the _____ is because they were first exposed to rap through hip-hop.
- ▶ 20. I agree! They block out background noise, _____ you can hear your music better.

PRONUNCIATION SKILL: Listen. Choose the contraction with be that you hear.

21. Which sentence do you hear?

- a. That's because the volume is turned all the way up.
- b. That is because the volume is turned all the way up.

22. Which sentence do you hear?

- a. What's it anyway?
- b. What is it anyway?

23. Which sentence do you hear?

- a. That's probably one reason you're always complaining about headaches.
- b. That is probably one reason you're always complaining about headaches.

24. Which sentence do you hear?

- a. There're the same thing, aren't they?
- b. They're the same thing, aren't they?

VOCABULARY: Write the correct word or phrase from the box to complete each sentence.

emotion engage with entertaining focus style

25. The only _____ I felt at my wedding was happiness. It was the best day of my life.

26. My sister has an interesting _____. She likes to wear clothing that she has made herself.

27. Even though we didn't know the music, the concert was _____. Everyone had a good time.

28. If you want to become a great pianist, you need to _____ when you practice. Don't think about anything else.

29. I didn't _____ the speaker. I thought the lecture was boring, so I didn't really listen.

VOCABULARY: Read the sentence. Choose the correct meaning of the word in bold.

30. I have contrasting feelings about rap music. Although I like the music, I don't always like the lyrics.

- a. showing emotion
- b. showing a similarity
- c. showing a difference

31. My brother hopes to become a country music composer. He has already created several songs.

- a. person who plays instruments
- b. person who writes music
- c. person who sings songs

32. Young people appreciate energetic music more than older adults do. For example, my parents are fond of classical music because they find it relaxing

- a. slow, without energy
- b. having energy, active
- c. very loud

33. None of my friends can relate to my favorite type of music—heavy metal. They ask me how I can listen to something so loud.

- a. criticize
- b. confuse
- c. understand

34. The sound of loud music is constant from that building. It is a music studio where artists record their songs.

- a. happening all the time
- b. hearing sometimes
- c. having differences

