Vocabulary training

The House

Match each question to its correct answer from the options provided.

1. Have your new flatmates helped you decorate the place?_____
2. Did the landlord ask you to pay the rent in advance? _____
3. Why did Mia move out of her studio flat last week? _____
4. Does your flatmate help you pay the bills on time?_____
5. Where is your new apartment located?_____
6. Is the cottage you stayed in fully furnished? _____
7. How long have you been living with your current housemate?_____
8. What does your bedroom overlook?_____
9. Has the new housing estate been completed yet?_____
10. Have you ever attended a housewarming party? _____
11. What kind of accommodation did you stay in on holiday?_____
12. Did your roommate forget to lock the door again?_____
13. Has anyone ever put you up while you were between flats?_____
14. Do you have a full-length mirror in your room?_____
15. Is there a sconce above your bedside table?_____

a) Yes, my aunt let me stay with her for two weeks last year.

b) He did, but only for one month.

c) No, I only have a small one above my dressing table.

d) Not entirely — a few blocks are still under construction.

e) Yes, it even had a fitted kitchen and cosy wooden floors.

f) A charming little cottage surrounded by mountains and woods.

g) No, luckily this time she remembered.

h) It's in a quiet district, just on the outskirts of town.

i) Because the rent was too high and she couldn't afford it anymore.

j) No, just a regular lamp — but I've been thinking of installing one.

k) Yes, my cousin threw one last summer when she bought her first flat.

l) Almost six months, and we get along really well.

m) Yes, we all added some cosy touches, and now it feels like home.

n) Yes, we always split them at the end of the month.

o) The garden and a small playground — it's a lovely view in spring.

English__on_the_go

LIVEWORKSHEETS