A CARROT AND A RING

Sara is a carrot farmer and she lives on a farm in Perth, Australia. She is married to Bob and he often helps her around the farm. One day while Sara was digging a hole to plant some seeds, her wedding ring fell off her finger.

Sara and Bob were both very sad. They looked everywhere for hours and hours, but they couldn't find the ring. They looked every day for a month and then decided to forget about it. On their wedding anniversary, Bob gave Sara a beautiful new ring.

Sara was happy with her new ring, but she still felt sad about the one that was lost. They continued working on their farm, and a few years later became parents to twin sons.

One morning when the twin boys were three years old, they were playing on the farm as they usually did. Sara often asked them to dig the carrots up from the ground. She was busy in the kitchen when Craig, one of the boys, came running inside. "Mama, look what I found!", he shouted excitedly. "What do you have there?" said Sarah. Craig opened his hand and there was her old wedding ring. It was just as she remembered it, but very dirty. Sarah was amazed! "Where did you find this, Craig?", she asked. "It was the carrot's necklace mama.", he answered.

The ring was obviously buried very deep in the ground, and then settled around the carrot's "neck" as it grew. Sara couldn't wait to show Bob when he came home. She now has two wedding rings and she keeps them both safely inside while she's busy on the farm!
