

Minimal Paris - Vowels

Dana: Say, ____, have you heard that John is _____ his yacht?

Tim: Really?

That's hard to believe.

I thought he loved _____.

Dana: He _____.

He just doesn't have much _____ for it anymore.

Besides, the _____ of maintenance is really high, and he lives pretty far from the _____.

So he's inviting some of us for a final voyage.

Tim: How many people can he ____ on his boat anyway?

Dana: It's about fifty _____ long.

Don't worry, there's plenty of room for everybody.

Tim: There's no chance of getting lost out on the ocean is there?

Dana: Not with John, there's not.

He's got a _____ of maps and charts, and he carries one of those GPS devices in his _____ wherever he goes.

Tim: But what if the wind _____ down?

Does he have a plan if that happens?

Dana: John's no _____.

He never leaves the bay without a _____ tank of _____.

Tim: Loud sounds scare me a little.

Does the motor make a lot of _____?

Dana: Listen, _____ not the time to be afraid.

This is a big day for John.

Can we count on you?

Tim: Does he have life jackets for all of us?
