

A. Circle the correct words.

1. Can / May you get me a newspaper when you go out?
2. A: Will / Could I go shopping with my friends, Mum?
B: No, you won't / can't. You've got lots of homework to do.
3. A: Please remember that you must / need bring the car before 2pm.
B: OK. I'll must / have to leave work earlier.
4. A: Would / May you teach me how to drive?
B: I'm sorry, I may not / can't. You are too young to drive.
5. A: Could / May you leave a message, please?
B: Sure. Please, tell Mr Smith that his car is ready.

6. A: Excuse me, may / would I take this bag with me on the plane?
B: Of course you would / may, sir.
7. A: Jenny, when can I borrow your camera? I really need / need to it.
B: I must / can give it to you on Monday and you don't have to / mustn't give it back to me for another week or so.
8. A: Do I need / Need I wash the car today?
B: Yes, the car needs washing.
9. A: Can / Will I give you a lift?
B: Thanks.

B. Complete the dialogues using the words in the box.

would need have to

1. A: I _____ some help. _____ you mind helping me?
B: Oh, I'm sorry, I'm too busy. I _____ finish this project in two hours.

need to can't could can

2. A: I _____ drive you home if you like.
B: That's very kind of you, but I _____ buy some things from the supermarket. _____ you drive me there first?
A: I'm afraid I _____. I'm in a hurry.

C. Circle the correct words.

1. Maria has to / needs be back home by midnight.
2. You mustn't / don't have to eat if you aren't hungry.
3. You've got all day tomorrow to work on the project. You mustn't / don't need to finish it tonight.
4. Sheila must / have to take her medicine.
5. You needn't / don't have cook. We're eating out tonight.
6. We need / must to buy bus tickets.
7. I don't have school tomorrow so I mustn't / don't have to get up early.
8. Thanks a lot for the present, but you had to / didn't have to buy me anything.
9. You mustn't / don't have to run in the museum.