Grammar Test

I. Choose the correct answer:

1. Neither Tom nor his friends _____ coming to the party tonight.

   a. is b. are c. was d. be

2. By the time we get to the cinema, the movie _____.

   a. starts b. is starting c. will have started d. has started

3. If I _____ you, I would not hesitate to take the opportunity.

   a. am b. were c. was d. will be

4. The teacher didn't explain the rules, _____ confused many students.

   a. who b. which c. what d. whose

5. If I _____ him, I would have given him the message.

   a. had met b. meet c. met d. have met

6. The workers _____ at the factory for more than 10 hours yesterday.

   a. worked b. had worked c. have worked d. were working

7. I will call you when I _____ home.

   a. arrived b. arrive c. have arrived d. will arrive

8. The man _____ you met at the conference is my cousin.

   a. whom b. who c. whose d. which

II. Fill in the blanks with the correct form of the verb:

1. By the time they (arrive) _____ at the party, everyone (already leave) _____.
2. She (not like) _____ to spend time with her relatives because they (always argue) _____.
3. If we (go) _____ to the beach this weekend, it (be) _____ a great time.
4. I will call you as soon as I (finish) _____ my homework.
5. We (not/see) _____ each other for years before we met at the reunion last week.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

6. If she (have) _____ more time, she (learn) _____ how to play the guitar.

III. Choose the sentence that is grammatically correct:

1. a. She was going to the gym when I saw her yesterday.
   b. She went to the gym when I saw her yesterday.
   c. She goes to the gym when I saw her yesterday.
   d. She is going to the gym when I saw her yesterday.

2. a. He asked me where I had been the previous night.
   b. He asked me where I was the previous night.
   c. He asked me where I had been last night.
   d. He asked me where I am the previous night.

3. a. The children were playing when the teacher enters the room.
   b. The children played when the teacher enters the room.
   c. The children are playing when the teacher enters the room.
   d. The children were playing when the teacher entered the room.

LIVEWORKSHEETS