Guy Fawkes Night

Guy Fawkes Night, celebrated on the 5th of November each year, is an exciting occasion. This special night remembers the Gunpowder Plot of 1605 when a man named Guy Fawkes and his friends tried to blow up the Houses of Parliament in London to protest against the government. Instead of succeeding, they were caught, and now, every year, people light bonfires and set off fireworks to celebrate their failure. It's a fascinating blend of history, excitement and fun traditions that children love to experience with their families and friends.

As the night falls, families gather around bonfires, roasting marshmallows and telling stories about Guy Fawkes and his adventures. Children often carry lanterns and sparklers, waving them around. In many towns, celebrations can include fun activities, such as fairground rides and delicious treats like toffee apples and hot chocolate to keep everyone warm. Some communities even create "Guy" dolls made from old clothes and stuffed with straw, which are placed on top of the bonfires before being set on fire. This unique tradition makes Guy Fawkes Night not only a thrilling spectacle but also a memorable experience where children can remember a rich cultural history.

Subject: Going to a doctor

... Tomorrow I'm going to see my children's doctor because I have caught a cold. I'm sure he will tell me to stay at home for a week.
How often do you visit doctors? Are you afraid of going to a doctor? What do you usually do while waiting at the doctor's office?
Write back soon.
Best wishes,
Nora
