Indicator in an Upward Trend

In the EUR/USD currency pair chart, the indicator highlights the order block zone with a green area when the price decreases. Subsequently, a fair value gap (FVG) forms in the same region.

The indicator issues a buy signal with this gap filled and sufficient market liquidity confirmed.

Indicator in a Downward Trend

The USD/JPY currency pair chart in the 1-minute timeframe shows that when the price creates a bearish order block and starts moving, a fair value gap (FVG) forms in its path.

After the price returns to the FVG zone, the indicator identifies the conditions and issues a sell signal. Reduced trading volume in key areas indicates buyer weakness and confirms selling pressure,
