

Exploring the Incredible Sights of Kyiv

Read the text and answer the questions below.

There are almost three million people in Kyiv, which is the capital of Ukraine. It is one of the most beautiful European cities, and it is a place full of history and culture. Thousands of tourists visit it every year, and when you think about all the wonderful things there are to do and see there. It's easy to understand why. One of the first places that tourists want to visit is Saint Sophia Cathedral. This colourful building is over one thousand years old. It is also on the UNESCO World Heritage List. Visitors can go inside and explore the cathedral as well as climb the famous Bell Tower. From there you can enjoy incredible views of the city. Not far from Saint Sophia Cathedral is a place just as interesting - the Kyiv Pechersk Lavra. It is a monastery which has the most amazing underground tunnels. You can go on a tour and explore them with a guide. It's definitely worth doing.

Next on the list of Kyiv's top sights is Independence Square. This is an exciting and busy place to be with some very beautiful old buildings. It's also a place where they organise events like festivals and concerts during the year. That's not all, though. There's also an underground shopping centre there!

Another well-known place to check out is Peizazhna Alley. It's a beautiful street, with impressive, colourful art for visitors to enjoy. It's a very popular place for tourists to go for a walk and take pictures.
