

Reflect on language

Demonstrative adjectives

1. We use this and these to indicate people or things near us.

2. We use that and those to indicate people or things that are not near us, or far from us.

Singular

That blouse is green. →

This dress is nice. →

Plural

Those pants are new. →

These shoes are expensive. →

Circle the correct sentence.

- a. These socks are dirty.

b. That sock is dirty.
- a. Those jeans are comfortable.

b. This jean is comfortable.
- a. These blouse is big.

b. That blouse is big.
- a. This dress is clean.

b. Those dress is clean.

Unscramble the words to write correct sentences in your notebook.

- are / her / Those / shoes /
- his / is / guitar / This /
- notebook / That / is / my /
- This / car / her / is
- their / are / jackets / These

Look at the pictures. Complete the sentences with the words in the box.

This That These Those

a. ... shoes.

Ref. Thinkstock

b. ... T-shirt.

Ref. Thinkstock

c. ... jacket.

Ref. Thinkstock

Ref. Thinkstock

d. ... pants.

Choose the correct adjective and complete the sentences.

- are my pants. (These / This)
- is my jacket. (Those / This)
- are my socks. (That / Those)
- are my yellow pants. (This / Those)
- is my jacket. (That / These)

Look at the pictures and complete with the suitable demonstrative adjective. (4 points)

1. hats. →

Ref. Thinkstock

2. blouse →

far

near

3. belt.

4. jackets →

far

