

Listen to the interview again. Read the sentences and write T (true) or F (false).

Part One

1. One of the attributes introverts possess is power.

True False

2. Introverts are encouraged to pretend to be extroverts.

True False

3. Most people think that introverts are anti-social and different from other people.

True False

Part Two

4. Half the population is biased against introverts.

True False

5. The bias against introverts is similar to the bias against women in the 1950s and 1960s.

True False

6. It will take a sea change for us to really understand the personality type of introversion.

True False

Part Three

7. Cain thinks that good leaders are extroverts with charisma and loud voices.

True False

8. Proactive and engaged employees seem to perform better with introverted leaders because introverted leaders give them more freedom.

True False

9. Cain thinks introverts should stop hiding their introversion.

True False

10. Cain thinks that introverts should help schools and workplaces change to meet their needs better.

True False