ICT Market Structure Indicator in an Uptrend

According to the 15-minute price chart of the GBP/CHF currency pair, a green candle has crossed the CHoCH line. Whenever the body of a candle crosses the red line, it indicates a change in market trend, making it a suitable point to enter a buy (Long) trade.

Moreover, breaking the blue lines indicates a break of support or resistance, confirming the entry for a buy trade. If only the shadow crosses the lines, it does not confirm the entry for a buy trade.
