Besides online transportation, another online service that is used the most is ordering food online. The service boasts the widest variety of restaurants and cuisines of any food delivery. You can order meals from all of your favorite restaurants online. The driver will order the food you want and deliver it to your place. This service, of course, makes it easy for you to order food without queuing and without the hassle. The food services also run promotions, deals and discounts for their listed restaurants.

Here's how to use the application for food services.

1. Choose an application and open the application from your smartphone or tablet.
2. Choose the food service.
3. Choose the food outlet you want.
4. Make your order by selecting the available menu or ordering manually in the Input Order Manually menu.
5. After that, go to the Booking Information menu, then enter the delivery destination address.
6. Choose a payment method.
7. Click "Order" and the application will immediately find the nearest driver from your selected food outlet.
8. After obtaining a driver, contact the driver to ensure that the driver has received your order clearly.

Passports are used to verify one's country of citizenship. The documents allow individuals to travel outside their country. Passports are small booklets which include photo, name, birth date, gender and physical characteristics. They are used for identification. To get a passport, there are a series of requirements and steps that you simply need to follow.

Required documents:

1. A valid identification card or a document of migration to another country.
2. A family card.
3. A birth certificate, a marriage certificate or book, a diploma, or a baptism certificate. (The document must contain the applicant's name, birthplace, and date of birth, as well as the names of his or her parents; if not stated, the applicant may submit a certificate from the appropriate authorities.)
4. Letter of Indonesian citizenship for foreigners who obtain Indonesian citizenship.
5. For persons who have altered their names a letter of stipulation from an authorized authority is required.
6. Letter of reference for an Indonesian worker's passport application.
7. Previous passports (if any).

How to Apply for a Passport Using an E-Form:

1. Register on M-Passport to apply for a new or reissued passport through an e-form submission.
2. After registration, access the M-Passport.
3. Get the e-form for a new or reissued passport.
4. Fill out the downloaded e-form and save it by clicking the validate and save option.
5. Use the upload e-form to submit the file containing the required papers.
6. After you have uploaded the form for a new or reissued passport, click on the 'pay and arrange appointment' option to book an appointment.
7. Look for a venue and decide on a situation.
8. Make an online payment with a credit or debit card after scheduling the appointment at the chosen location.
9. Make a copy of the application receipt, which includes the application reference number or appointment number.
10. Go to the location where the appointment has been scheduled. Don't forget to bring the original documents.
