People who live in glass houses shouldn't throw stones.	Moments of happiness are brief.
It's the exception that proves the rule.	Spend quality time with loved ones or in a comforting space to deepen your connection.
Don't put off until tomorrow what you can do today	Be cautious with appearances.
Time flies when you're having fun	Deal with a problem when it happens and not beforehand
All that glitters is not gold	Adapt to new environments by observing and mimicking local customs
Home is where the heart is	Reflect on your own flaws before criticizing others.
I'll cross that bridge when I come to it	Build a habit of completing tasks immediately.
All's well that ends well	Appreciate your home by comparing it to other places you visit, noting what makes it special.
When in Rome, do as the Romans do	Stay Optimistic during challenges by reflecting on past situations that resolved positively.
East or West, home is best	An exception reinforces the general rule.
