Complete with Present Perfect from the verbs and just/already/yet.

1. She´s smiling. She _____ _____ _____ with her boyfriend. (make up – just)
2. I'm really mad at him. We _____ _____ _____ (have an argument – already)
3. Yes, she messaged him yesterday. But they _____ _____ _____ (not go on a date – yet)
4. I can't stop thinking about him! I think I _____ _____ _____ with him. (fall in love – already)
5. _____ they _____ _____? (go on a date – yet)
6. He's really happy! He _____ _____ _____ Laura out, and she said yes! (ask – just)

Choose the correct verb for each sentence.

1. Children do this very loudly when they hurt themselves or when they're scared.
2. Some people do this when they're embarrassed.
3. People who love each other do this.
4. You might do this if you see someone or something really interesting.
5. Some people do this when they're sad.
6. People sometimes do this when they have an argument.
7. People often do this when they hear a funny joke.
8. People often do this when they don't understand something or when they're worried.

LIVEWORKSHEETS