There's a library with lots of good books, and a _____ to send letters, but nothing else. There isn't a _____ to watch films! I live in a big town and there's everything we need. I go to the _____ to play tennis and take swimming classes at the _____. In December, I love ice skating at the _____ and going bowling at the _____. My town has also got a _____ - I was there last year when I broke my arm! But my favourite place is in the centre of town - it's an _____ with lots of fish. My dad takes me there sometimes and leaves the car in a big _____. After that, I usually go skateboarding in a cool _____ nearby.

Lost under the sea

In March 2018, a class from Mount Elementary School in Su'ao, Taiwan, went to clean the beach. They found a camera in an underwater case. They didn't know it was a camera at first because the case had things from the sea all over it. They showed their teacher, Mr Park Lee. He opened the case. Inside was a digital camera, and no sea water!

The class took the camera back to school. Everyone had questions: Did it work? Were there any photos in it? Did it belong to someone from Su'ao? Could they find him or her? The camera worked! Mr Park Lee looked at the photos. They showed fish and people underwater, and streets in Japan. Mr Lee put some photos with a message in Chinese and Japanese on social media. He asked people to share the message with their friends. In the next 24 hours, thousands of people saw the message. One of them was Serina Tsubakihara, a Japanese student. She couldn't believe it – they were her photos!

Serina went scuba diving near Okinawa, in Japan, in September 2015. She lost her camera there. It was in the sea for more than two years and travelled 250 kilometres to Taiwan!
