SECOND TERM REVISION 4

I. Find and correct the mistake in each of the following sentences.

1. While walk in the forest, Kelly was stung by a bee. _____
2. No sooner had she reached home when it started to rain. _____
3. I hope to visit the British Museum when I will be in London. _____
4. The students said me that they used Google Meet for video conferencing. _____
5. Some books of us were stolen in the library last week. _____
6. Be quick, Lisa! We need to leave by a few minutes; otherwise, we'll miss the train. _____
7. Students can practice English with robots at real time. _____
8. Some students think that online learning help them become more independent. _____
9. Lan likes face-to-face classes although she can interact with her friends. _____
10. Telepathy might be the most popular means of communicate in 2050. _____

II. Rewrite these sentences without changing their meaning.

1. "We can learn many skills from STEAM classes," said a student.
   - A student said _____
2. The headmaster said their school had a large laboratory, and their teachers often conducted experiments there.
   - "_____," the headmaster said.
3. "You will like science after you read this book." our teacher said to me.
   - Our teacher told _____
4. The water was polluted, so a lot of fish died.
   - Due to _____
5. They are diligent. They can't pass that easy test. (Despite)
   - _____
6. John is one of her friends. (HERS)
   - _____
7. That bike is his.
   - That bike belongs _____
8. I prefer spending my weekend hiking in the mountains to staying at home.
   - I would rather _____ at home.
9. I regret not studying harder for the exam.
   - I wish I _____ for the exam.
10. The robot is too expensive for the company to buy. (AFFORD)
    - The company _____

LIVEWORKSHEETS