Chapter 5
Mother are Birbal

Fill in the Blanks

1. Mothers are for loving you whether you're _____ or bad.
2. Mothers laugh at your favorite _____.
3. Mothers help you get along with other _____.
4. Mothers push you when you're on a _____.
5. Mothers kiss you a sweet and kind _____.

True or False (10 Questions)

1. Mothers only love their children when they're good. (True/False)
2. Mothers help their children interact with others. (True/False)
3. Mothers scold their children when they weep. (True/False)
4. Mothers bake birthday cakes for their children. (True/False)
5. Mothers ignore their children when they're sick. (True/False)

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Multiple Choice Questions (10 Questions)

1. What does the poem say mothers are for?

a) Only scolding

b) Loving and helping

c) Ignoring their children

d) Working all day

2. What do mothers do when their children weep?

a) Scold them

b) Cuddle them

c) Laugh at them

d) Leave them alone

3. What do mothers bake for their children?

a) Pizza

b) Birthday cakes

LIVEWORKSHEETS

c) Vegetables

d) Soup

4. What does the word "aches" mean in the poem?

a) Happiness

b) Pain

c) Laughter

d) Sleep

5. What do mothers do when their children are on a swing?

a) Push them

b) Ignore them

c) Scold them

d) Laugh at them

6. How do mothers show love at bedtime?

a) By singing loudly

LIVEWORKSHEETS

b) By kissing them goodnight

c) By telling stories

d) By turning off the lights

7. What does the word "snuggle" mean?

a) To fight

b) To get into a comfortable position close to someone

c) To run away

d) To cry loudly

8. What do mothers do when their children's tummy aches?

a) Nurse them

b) Scold them

c) Ignore them

d) Laugh at them

9. What is the main theme of the poem?

LIVEWORKSHEETS

a) Fathers are important

b) Mothers are loving and caring

c) Children should be independent

d) Birthdays are fun

10. Who is the poet of this poem?

a) Robert Frost

b) Dorothy Hewitt

c) William Wordsworth

d) Emily Dickinson

LIVEWORKSHEETS