Films of the week

A. East-side Story

This sequel to the original musical classic is definitely worth seeing. This time, the romantic interest takes place between a middle-aged Italian man and a Russian woman in New York, with a great message about love and age. Excellent dance routines and singing performances make this exceptional film as entertaining as a Broadway hit.

B. Chuckling all Day

The young comedian Steve Trumann gives us another extremely funny performance as the office worker who has one humorous accident after another in the busy city he lives in. In the end, we feel that this could happen to any one of us, which perhaps helps us laugh in an understanding way.

C. Phantom Screams

In this tense psychological thriller, James Tyler has the same terrible dream: that spirits who want the house empty, kill him and his family. However, when the first events of his dream start happening, a series of clues provide the only hope he has to save himself and the family.

D. The Soldier Returns

Although Arnold Stallon tried his best in this film, he seems to have failed. He plays an ex-commando who must now fight a drug-lord. But the only thing he seems to do throughout the movie is fight everyone, using guns, knives and bombs. His character is nothing more than a guy who enjoys killing others.

E. Destiny of the Heart

Two young students leave high school for college, and although they were in love with each other, neither managed to tell the other. The film is set four years later when the two meet by chance at a train station. Will they let each other go again or live happily ever after? A predictable but sweet romantic movie for teenagers.

F. Murder at the Office

This is a classic murder mystery. At the beginning of the film, we see through the murderer's eyes, as he attacks and kills his victim, a rich businessman. Next, we see a room with five suspects, all his employees, who were in the building at the time. Can you guess who did it?

G. The 23rd Century Man

The biggest science fiction film of the year does not disappoint as Michael Saunt plays an astronaut in the 23rd century who is travelling the stars with only robots and computers as company. But there's more to this film than fiction, as it warns us about the danger of losing our human nature to computers.

H. Henry V

Anyone looking for a classic should consider this Shakespeare play, complete with Hollywood special effects and star names. The hard reality of war in the Middle Ages is certainly brought to life by the tough actors as they march through France.
