E. READING

Read the text and choose the correct answer.

Stress is not just a problem that adults have to face. Young people also frequently experience unhealthy levels of stress. Schooling is the top source which causes stress to teenagers.

According to data collected by the American Psychological Association for the Stress in America Survey, teen stress is the same as, or even worse than that of adults. The results of the survey have shown that teenagers can identify that their stress levels are not healthy, and they realize that stress has negative impacts on their mental and physical health.

Some teenagers can struggle against significant stress levels that interfere with learning, relationships, and other aspects in daily life; while others cannot get over the stress and have to get mental treatment. Therefore, it is important to know the negative effects that stress has on teenagers:
