

Lesson 5A

GRAMMAR | object pronouns

VOCABULARY | common verbs (1)

PRONUNCIATION | linking with object pronouns

VOCABULARY

common verbs (1)

1 A Find eight verbs in the word snake.

tsxegetasaydhcallopsendohelpdjdtakeahdythankqdforget

- | | |
|---------|---------|
| 1 _____ | 5 _____ |
| 2 _____ | 6 _____ |
| 3 _____ | 7 _____ |
| 4 _____ | 8 _____ |

B Choose the correct word to complete the sentences.

- My colleague Ben sometimes _____ coffee for me in the morning.
a calls b gets c helps
- Pepe isn't friendly. He never _____ 'hello' or 'good morning'.
a forgets b sends c says
- Akira never _____ my daughter's birthday.
a forgets b says c takes
- Dilara often _____ me with problems at work.
a takes b sends c helps
- Our colleague John sometimes _____ a two-hour lunch break.
a calls b takes c sends
- I never _____ work emails in the evenings or at weekends.
a send b say c take
- Simone usually _____ me for my help.
a takes b gets c thanks
- Piotr often _____ his friends after work.
a gets b calls c takes

C Complete the text with the words in the box.

for (x2) gets helps says thanks to with

My colleague Sanjit is great. He always ¹ _____ 'hello' with a smile and he ² _____ coffee ³ _____ everybody in the office. He always listens ⁴ _____ us. He often ⁵ _____ me ⁶ _____ my problems and always ⁷ _____ me ⁸ _____ my help.

GRAMMAR

object pronouns

2 A Complete the table.

subject pronoun	object pronoun
1 _____	me
you	2 _____
he	3 _____
4 _____	it
she	5 _____
6 _____	us
they	7 _____

B The sentences below have a mistake. Choose the best option to correct the mistake.

- I don't like my manager. She never listens to I.
a my b me c she
- I don't eat eggs because I don't like him.
a them b it c her
- Our colleague James always helps we with our problems.
a they b them c us
- My new coffee machine is great. I love her!
a it b him c them

C Complete the text with object pronouns.

I'm a digital designer. My job is difficult, but I love ¹ _____. My colleagues are friendly – I really like ² _____. Mo is my favourite colleague. He always helps ³ _____ with my problems and I often have lunch with ⁴ _____. Our manager's name is Paola. She's a great manager and we like ⁵ _____. She never forgets our birthdays and on Fridays she always gets coffee and cakes for ⁶ _____!

PRONUNCIATION

3 A 5.01 | linking with object pronouns | Listen to the sentences and add links between the words.

- I really like him.
- She never helps us.
- Please call her tomorrow.
- They don't like it.
- He always thanks us.
- She usually gets him coffee.

B 5.01 | Listen again and repeat the sentences.

READING

4A Read the blog and choose the best title (a–c).

- a My Best Friend, Jay
- b A Good Colleague
- c A Good Friend but a Bad Colleague

I have a new job. It's in an office with twelve people and one of my colleagues is my friend, Jay!

Jay is an old friend from school. He's great! We usually play tennis together on Thursday evenings and we often have lunch or dinner together at the weekend with our families. We always have a good time. He never forgets my birthday, and sometimes he gets me a birthday cake! Jay is a very good listener and always helps me with my problems. He's a really good friend.

But at work, Jay is different! He always says 'hello' or 'good morning' but he sometimes forgets people's names! I have lunch in the café with my other colleagues, but Jay usually has lunch at his desk. He often gets me a coffee in the afternoon, but he doesn't talk very much and he doesn't always listen to my ideas. And he always uses my pens and sticky notes, but he never asks me!

I think Jay is a great friend, but I don't think he's a great colleague – it's very strange!

B Read the blog again. Complete the table with the phrases in the box.

listens to me doesn't listen to my ideas
forgets important information has lunch with me
helps me with my problems uses my things

my friend Jay	my colleague Jay

C Read the blog again. Are the statements True (T) or False (F)?

- 1 The blog writer has ten colleagues.
- 2 Jay is the writer's new friend.
- 3 Jay and the writer play tennis together.
- 4 Jay always gets the writer a birthday cake.
- 5 The writer helps Jay with his problems.
- 6 Jay forgets his colleagues' names.
- 7 Jay usually has lunch with his colleagues.
- 8 Jay doesn't get the writer coffee.

WRITING

write about a colleague or friend; use pronouns

5A Read the description. Choose the correct alternative.

- 1 Lizzie is a good / bad colleague.
- 2 Lizzie says / doesn't say 'thank you' for her coffee.
- 3 Lizzie listens / doesn't listen to other people's ideas.
- 4 Lizzie sends / doesn't send emails at the weekend.

Lizzie is my colleague. I think ¹Lizzie is a very good colleague. ²Lizzie is really friendly and ³Lizzie always says 'hello' to me. Every morning I get a coffee and a pastry for ⁴Lizzie, and ⁵Lizzie always thanks me. My other colleagues and I have lots of good ideas, and Lizzie always listens to ⁶my colleagues and me. Lizzie never sends emails and messages at the weekend and ⁷Lizzie never asks ⁸my other colleagues and I to work on Saturdays. ⁹My other colleagues and I like ¹⁰Lizzie a lot!

B Replace the underlined words in the description with subject or object pronouns.

- 1
- 2
- 3
- 4
- 5
- 6
- 7
- 8
- 9
- 10

6 Write a description of a colleague or friend. Use the text about Lizzie to help you. Remember to use pronouns. Write 50–80 words.