

VOCABULARY REVISION UNIT 1

1. Complete the sentences using the words below.

outlook • values • language barrier • roots • manners • misconception • culture gap

1. Respect and kindness are some of the _____ that guide my decisions.
2. There's a common _____ that all big cities are dangerous.
3. Even though both teams speak Spanish, a _____ still made collaboration difficult.
4. In many places, it's a sign of poor _____ to interrupt someone while they are speaking.
5. The _____ between traditions caused some confusion during the ceremony.
6. My ancestors came from France, so I still feel connected to my _____.
7. Tom's positive _____ helps him stay calm even in stressful situations.

2. Choose the correct answer. Pay attention to the words in bold.

1. Mia wanted to fit in, so she chose something stylish / boring.
2. The changes to the design are subtle. They are obvious / hard to notice.
3. Hannah is narrow-minded, so she welcomes / refuses different opinions.
4. It's practically unheard of for it to snow in July here — it usually / hardly ever happens.
5. Jake feels awkward during interviews because he's confident / nervous.
6. Oliver is very straightforward. He hides / shares his true feelings easily.

3. Read the sentences and choose the word that best describes each one.

alike • sensitive • foreign • tend to • appropriate • rude • open-minded

1. He answered his phone loudly during the meeting.
2. Many people say my brother and I look almost identical.
3. When I'm tired, I forget small details.
4. She gets emotional every time she hears sad news.
5. Can you suggest a proper outfit for the ceremony?
6. My grandparents are very accepting of new traditions from other countries.

Complete the text using the words and expressions below.

stuck to • culture gap • attempted to • misconception • values • longing for

THE FIRST CROSS-COUNTRY FLIGHT

On a bright morning in 1911, Calbraith Perry Rodgers set off to complete the first flight across the United States. During his journey, he experienced a major _____ with the local people he met — while they saw him as a crazy risk-taker, Rodgers believed he was simply chasing a dream.

Many pilots before him had _____ complete the same route, but none had managed to finish. Rodgers, however, was _____ adventure and fame, willing to face any danger that came his way.

Throughout his trip, Rodgers _____ a strict plan to stop for repairs and supplies at designated cities. Despite constant mechanical failures, he refused to give up. Over time, a popular _____ spread that Rodgers had flown non-stop across the country, but in reality, he had landed dozens of times.

In the end, his persistence and _____ — determination, courage, and vision — made him a true pioneer of aviation history.

Complete the sentences with the verbs fell, caught or lost.

1. Lucas _____ in love with someone he met during his trip to Italy.
2. I've _____ count of how many hours I've spent studying for the exam.
3. I think I've _____ a cold — my throat's been sore all morning.
4. As soon as we entered the museum, I _____ sight of the famous painting.
5. She _____ her patience when the printer jammed for the third time.
6. The announcement _____ me by surprise because no one had mentioned any changes.

Choose the correct answer to show that you have understood the meaning of the expressions in bold.

1. When something falls out of favour, it becomes unpopular / expensive.
2. People often lose sleep over something when they are stressed / excited.
3. When something catches your eye, it is noticeable / dangerous.
4. She fell ill during the trip, so she had to rest / continue traveling.
5. I fell asleep while I was watching a boring movie / jogging in the park.
6. When you lose sight of someone, you can't see them / forget their name.