What's most important to you?

Five teenagers talk about the things that are most important to them.

Michael

I don't have any brothers or sisters but I'm never lonely because of my [5] _____. I don't think anything is more important to me than them. We do everything together – go to the cinema, do sports, chat and study at home.

Paulina

My [6] _____ are more important to me than anything. We spend a lot of time together and help each other when we're unhappy. We always eat our evening meal together. My cousins often come to dinner, too, and then there are 15 of us around the table. We have a great time.

Isabella

It's easy to say what's important to me: _____ ! I love doing all kinds of it. I'm in three school teams so I practise six days a week. Sunday is the one day when I can be lazy, and I watch matches and tournaments on TV then.

Sergii

The most important thing for me is _____ . We should all look after ourselves. I do yoga every day and it makes my whole body feel great. It's very good for my neck and back, which sometimes hurt when I've sat at a desk all day.

Olha

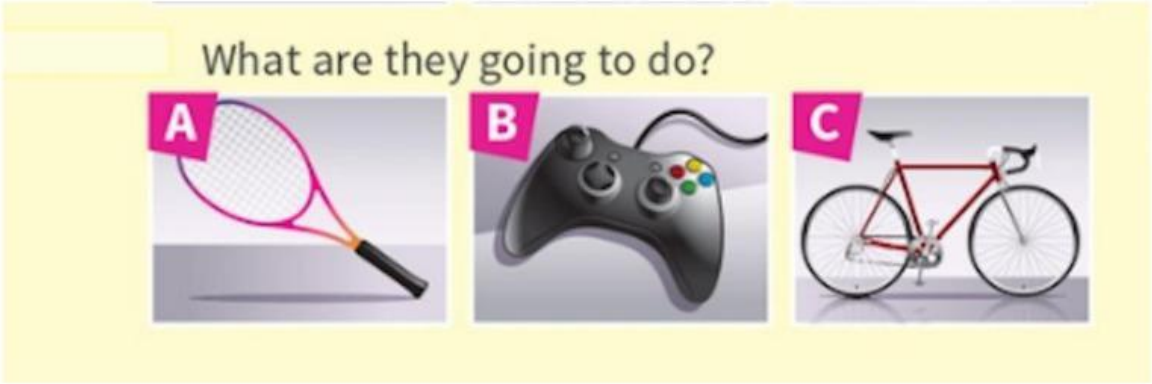

At the moment I'm worried about my _____ . It's really important to me. I'm only 14, but I already know what I want to do when I'm older: I want to be a heart doctor. That means I can never be lazy, and I must do well in every exam.
