

Revision Quiz 2

Based on the listening tests 3 and 4.
Choose the most plausible answer.

1. You can say "How come?" if you want to know

- A) the schedule for something
- B) the location of something
- C) the reason for something

2. Passengers were saying "What's going on?" because their flight

- A) was departing on time
- B) was arriving soon
- C) was delayed

3. If a thief says "Give me your money, or else!", he's

- A) threatening to call the police
- B) threatening to let you go
- C) threatening to hurt you

4. You would say "What were they thinking?" if you wanted to know

- A) the time something happened
- B) the opinions of a group of people
- C) the poor judgment behind an action

5. The question "Do I make myself clear?" is used to

- A) check if someone can hear you properly
- B) ensure someone understands what you are saying
- C) ask for someone's personal opinion

6. When someone says "Make yourself at home," they are usually trying to:

- A) politely ask you to leave soon.
- B) encourage you to feel comfortable and relaxed in their space.
- C) give you specific instructions on household chores.

7. Saying "Mark my word" is typically used when someone wants to:

- A) apologize for a mistake they've made.
- B) emphasize the certainty and truthfulness of what they are saying.
- C) ask for permission to say something important.

8. Which is the closest synonym for the phrase "Let's give it a miss":

- A) "Let's try this again later."
- B) "Let's avoid this."
- C) "I miss you and want to meet soon."

9. When someone says "Take it from me," they are often trying to:

- A) offer a guess or speculation about something.
- B) share their personal experience or confident opinion.
- C) ask for your advice on a difficult situation.

10. The expression "All in good time" generally means that something will happen:

- A) very urgently and immediately.
- B) eventually, when the circumstances are right.
- C) much earlier than expected.

11. In which of the following situations would you most likely say "You shouldn't have!"?

- A) receiving a bill for a service you requested.
- B) being presented with a thoughtful birthday present.
- C) witnessing someone else receive an unexpected reward.

12. In which of the following situations would someone most likely ask "How does that sound?"

- A) after presenting factual information.
- B) after sharing a personal anecdote.
- C) after proposing a plan or making an offer.