Travelling is one of the best ways to learn about different cultures and broaden your mind. I always enjoys visiting new places because it gives me the chance to experience something different. This weekend, I go on a hiking trip to the mountains, which I think will be most exciting adventure I've had in a while. I usually travel with my friends, but this time I go alone for some quiet reflection. Although I love exploring nature, meet new people is the most rewarding part of any trip. I believe that learning about other cultures helps me become more open-minded. As we are discovering new destinations, we are looking forward to share the stories and experiences with others.
