SIMPLE PRESENT OR PRESENT CONTINUOUS?

5. Classify these sentences. Write S for simple present and C for present continuous next to each sentence.

1. The crane operator moves heavy loads every day. _____
2. Today, the workers are installing a new elevator. _____
3. The plumber fixes water systems. _____
4. The site manager is talking to a visitor right now. _____
5. Carpenters cut wood for window frames. _____
6. Look! The architect is checking the new plans. _____
7. I'm testing electrical equipment. _____
8. She meets clients every Monday. _____
9. The workers are collecting timber. _____
10. Juan gets to the site at 7.00 o' clock. _____
11. We never work on rooks when it's windy. _____
12. The trucks are entering the materials in the warehouse. _____
13. Electricians repair the wiring at weekends. _____
14. She is working a until the afternoon today. _____
15. The site manager watches the workers form his office. _____
16. The team checks the buildings on Tuesdays. _____

If there is something you didn't understand, write it here:

LIVEWORKSHEETS