CHAPTER 4 THE KING SOLOMAN

Fill in the Blanks

1. King Solomon was famous for his _____ and fair justice.
2. The Queen of _____ came to test Solomon's wisdom.
3. The queen brought two garlands—one _____ and the other artificial.
4. Solomon ordered his servants to open all the _____ of the courtroom.
5. The bees were attracted to the real garland because of its _____.
6. The queen initially thought Solomon was _____ when he remained silent.
7. Solomon's wisdom was so great that no one could successfully _____ him.
8. The people in the courtroom were _____ when the bees identified the real garland.
9. The queen was _____ by Solomon's clever solution.
10. Solomon's _____ spread far and wide.

Multiple Choice Questions

1. Why was King Solomon famous?

a) For his wisdom and fair justice.

b) For his immense wealth and treasures.

c) For his powerful army and conquests.

d) For his ability to predict the future.

2. What did the Queen of Steba bring to test Solomon's wisdom?

a) Two identical swords.

b) Two garlands—one real and one artificial.

c) A riddle written on a scroll.

d) A box of gold and silver coins.

3. How did Solomon identify the real garland?

LIVEWORKSHEETS

a) By touching the flowers to feel their texture.

b) By tasting the petals to check their flavour.

c) By ordering the windows opened and observing the bees.

d) By asking his advisors to vote for the real one.

4. Why did the queen initially think Solomon was confused?

a) He kept laughing uncontrollably.

b) He asked for more time to decide.

c) He refused to answer her question.

d) He remained silent for a while.

5. What was the reaction of the courtroom when the bees swarmed the garland?

a) They laughed at the queen's failure.

b) They were surprised and impressed.

c) They accused Solomon of cheating.

d) They ignored the incident and left.

6. Why did Solomon order the windows to be opened?

a) To let fresh air into the crowded courtroom.

b) To allow sunlight to reveal the garland's colours.

c) To attract bees toward the fragrant of real garland.

d) To signal his servants to bring another test.

7. What lesson does the story of Solomon and the queen teach?

a) Wealth is more important than intelligence.

b) True wisdom reveals itself through clever solutions.

c) Queens should not challenge kings.

d) Artificial flowers are better than real ones.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

8. How did the queen feel after Solomon solved her challenge?

a) Angry and humiliated.

b) Unimpressed and bored.

c) Amazed and respectful.

d) Jealous of his power.

9. What was the purpose of the queen's visit to Solomon?

a) To test his wisdom and fame.

b) To declare war on his kingdom.

c) To seek his help in a political matter.

d) To gift him rare flowers from her land.

10. What does the chapter highlight about Solomon's justice?

a) It was feared by his enemies.

b) It pleased all his people.

c) It was influenced by his advisors.

d) It was rarely questioned.

Read each question carefully and choose the best answer.

There are no trick questions—just think like King Solomon!

1. You find next week's test question paper on the teacher's desk. What do you do?

a) Take a photo to share with friends

b) Leave them there and tell the teacher

c) Memorize them but don't tell anyone

d) Tear them up so no one can cheat

LIVEWORKSHEETS

2. You see someone being bullied after school. What's your best action?

a) Join in to avoid becoming a target
b) Walk away - it's not your problem
c) Tell a trusted adult immediately
d) Film it to post online

3. You accidentally break a neighbour's window with a baseball. What's right?

a) Run away before anyone sees
b) Leave an anonymous apology note
c) Tell your parents and offer to pay
d) Blame it on another kid

4. Your whole study group cheats on an assignment. What do you do?

a) Go along with it to fit in
b) Refuse to participate and do your own work
c) Cheat but feel guilty later
d) Threaten to tell unless they stop

5. You find a lost dog with a collar but no owner nearby. What's best?

a) Keep it as your own
b) Take it home but don't tell anyone
c) Check the tag and call the owner
d) Leave it - someone else will help

6. A store clerk forgets to charge you for an item. What should you do?

a) Consider it your lucky day

LIVEWORKSHEETS

b) Go back and pay for it

c) Only return if the item was expensive

d) Tell your friends how you got free stuff

7. Your friend asks if their bad haircut looks okay. It doesn't. You:

a) Say it looks terrible to be honest

b) Lie and say it looks great

c) Say "It's different, but you're still you"

d) Laugh and take a picture

8. Your friends start excluding a classmate. How do you respond?

a) Join them to stay popular

b) Secretly invite the excluded kid

c) Speak up and include everyone

d) Pretend not to notice

9. Friends dare you to spray-paint school property. What's wise?

a) Do it - it's just harmless fun

b) Refuse and suggest something legal

c) Watch but don't participate

d) Do it but wear a disguise

10. You're tempted to copy a project online. What's the ethical choice?

a) Copy but change some words

b) Do your own original work

c) Pay someone to do it for you

d) Claim you lost it to get more time

11. Two kids argue over a toy, each claiming it's theirs. How would you solve this like Solomon?

LIVEWORKSHEETS

a) Let them fight until one gives up.
b) Suggest sharing the toy equally.
c) Ask for proof (like a receipt or memory of buying it).
d) Pretend to break the toy to see who reacts with genuine sadness.

12. Your friend accidentally breaks a vase and blames it on the cat. What's the wisest thing to do?

a) Scold the cat to protect your friend.
b) Tell your friend honesty is better, even if it's hard.
c) Ignore it—it's not your problem.
d) Blackmail your friend for candy to stay quiet.

13. You forgot to do your homework and the teacher asks for it. What's the wisest response?

a) Blame your dog for eating it.
b) Admit the truth and ask for extra time.
c) Copy a friend's work quickly.
d) Pretend to be sick and go home.

14. A classmate is bullying others. How would Solomon handle this?

a) Ignore it—it's not your business.
b) Gather evidence and report it to a teacher.
c) Bully them back to teach a lesson.
d) Start a rumour about the bully.

15. You find a wallet with money on the street. What's the wisest action?

a) Take the money and throw the wallet away.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

b) Give it to an adult or return it in to the police.

c) Keep it—no one will know.

d) Ask friends to vote on what to do.

16. Your teammate isn't doing any work. How do you handle it wisely?

a) Do their part for them to avoid conflict.

b) Talk to them privately and offer help.

c) Complain about them to the class teacher.

d) Refuse to work and blame them.

17. A classmate laughs when you trip, but later they trip and get hurt. What do you do?

a) Laugh at them to pay them back.

b) Help them up and say, "Are you okay?"

c) Walk away and ignore them.

d) Tell everyone they deserved it.

18. Friends dare you to cheat on a test. How do you respond wisely?

a) Cheat—you don't want to look uncool.

b) Say, "I'd rather fail honestly than pass dishonestly."

c) Agree but secretly don't do it.

d) Threaten to tell the teacher.

19. You have homework and a favourite show on TV. What's the wise choice?

a) Watch the show—homework can wait.

b) Do homework first, then watch the show if there's time.

c) Try to do both at the same time.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

d) Pretend you're sick to avoid both.

20. You hear a rumour about a classmate. What should you do?

a) Spread it to see if it's true.

b) Ask the person directly if they're okay.

c) Ignore it.

d) Make up a worse rumour.

21. Someone insults you. What's the wisest reaction?

a) Yell back even louder.

b) Take a deep breath and walk away.

c) Plan revenge later.

d) Cry and run to the teacher.

22. You see a lonely new student sitting alone at lunch. What do you do?

a) Join them and ask about their interests.

b) Wait for someone else to help them.

c) Assume they want to be alone.

d) Point and whisper with friends.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

e) Point and whisper with friends.

LIVEWORKSHEETS