Read the text and choose the best answer for each question below.

If you enjoy cycling for pleasure, doing it in London can be a shock. There are not many lanes, especially for bikes, and making your way through the traffic can be very dangerous. But if you have a great passion, cycling in London can be exciting, and it is an expensive way of keeping fit if you live there. Some cyclists don't mind spending a lot of money on expensive bikes. However, if you just want a basic bike, there are many cheap choices at bicycle markets. In most cases, cheap bikes still look good and are in good condition. You should buy a cycling helmet if you want to cycle in London. Wearing a cycling helmet is not a must in Britain, but it is a good idea to wear one for protection.

Question 19 (Question ID: 60-612111)

What is the text about?

Read the text.

Jenny likes elephants very much. On Saturday and Sunday mornings, she often helps her uncle at the zoo. One Saturday, a small baby elephant called Tobi had a very bad cough. Jenny's uncle decided to take Tobi to the zoo hospital.

That week, Jenny had a holiday from school, so she helped her uncle with Tobi every day. After six days, the baby elephant was so much better, so Jenny's uncle took Tobi home to his mother.

Jenny was sad when she had to say goodbye to Tobi. Jenny's uncle understood the problem. "When Tobi was ill in the hospital, he liked you because you helped him. He doesn't need you now because he's with his mother. But he's happy, isn't he?"

"You're right," said Jenny, "so I'll be happy, too."
