Chapter 6: Lucky and the Giants

Fill in the blanks

1. Lucky was a _____ man who loved to boast about imaginary bravery.
2. He engraved his sword with the words: "This is the Sword of Lucky, Slayer of _____."
3. While sleeping under a tree, Lucky hid a small bag of _____ to protect it from thieves.
4. Seven real giants found Lucky and were impressed by the _____ on his sword.
5. To trick the giants, Lucky stamped on the hidden flour bag, creating a cloud of _____.
6. The giants believed Lucky could make the earth _____ when he stomped his foot.
7. During the rhinoceros hunt, Lucky hid in a _____ but accidentally fell onto the beast.
8. After the beast was killed, Lucky scolded the giants for ruining his attempt to _____ the animal.
9. In the battle, Lucky's frightened horse uprooted a _____, which scared the savages away.
10. By the end, the giants celebrated Lucky as a _____, never learning the truth.

Choose the correct meaning for each word

1. Timid

a) Extremely courageous
b) Highly intelligent
c) Physically weak

LIVEWORKSHEETS

d) Lacking self-confidence; shy

2. Engraved

a) Painted hastily
b) Carved permanently into a surface
c) Wiped away
d) Covered with cloth

3. Desperate

a) Playful and lighthearted
b) Well-planned
c) Reckless due to extreme urgency
d) Briefly interrupted

4. Dwelt

a) Lived permanently
b) Visited occasionally
c) Ruled tyrannically
d) Fought bitterly

5. Jolted

a) Comfortably seated
b) Shaken violently
c) Gently rocked
d) Deliberately thrown

6. Astonishment

a) Amused disbelief
b) Complete boredom

LIVEWORKSHEETS

c) Overwhelming surprise

d) Silent anger

7. Savages

a) Peaceful farmers

b) Civilized merchants

c) Religious pilgrims

d) Fierce, uncivilized warriors

8. Flattered

a) Complimented excessively

b) Fainted or collapsed

c) Laughed uncontrollably

d) Ran swiftly

9. Boasting

a) Openly bragging

b) Secretly fearing

c) Carefully hiding

d) Sincerely regretting

10. Impressed

a) Slightly annoyed

b) Completely fooled

c) Deeply influenced or awed

d) Physically threatened

Multiple Choice Questions

1. How does Lucky's personality contrast with his self-image?

LIVEWORKSHEETS

a) He sees himself as a humble farmer but secretly craves adventure.
b) He pretends to be brave in his imagination but is actually timid in reality.
c) He believes himself to be intelligent but consistently makes foolish decisions.
d) He acts cruel to others but is kind-hearted deep down.

2. What literary device is showcased when Lucky slays three flies but calls them giants?

a) Hyperbole
b) Foreshadowing
c) Metaphor
d) Onomatopoeia

3. Why do the giants initially respect Lucky?

a) They witness him defeat a real giant in combat.
b) He offers them valuable treasures from his travels.
c) He speaks their secret language fluently.
d) They read the engraved claim on his sword and believe his boasts.

4. How does Lucky create the illusion of power during his first encounter with the giants?

a) By using a magic spell to summon a storm.
b) By challenging them to a wrestling match.
c) By stamping on his hidden flour bag to produce a dust cloud.
d) By revealing a map to a hidden treasure.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

5. What does the rhinoceros incident reveal about Lucky's bravery?

a) He strategically lures the beast into a trap.
b) His accidental actions are mistaken for courage.
c) He sacrifices himself to save the giants.
d) He tames the animal through patience and skill.

6. How does the author create humor during the rhinoceros chase scene?

a) Through Lucky's poetic monologues about nature.
b) By having the rhinoceros speak human words.
c) Through situational irony (Lucky's panic vs. the giants' admiration).
d) By describing the rhinoceros wearing clothes.

7. What role does the uprooted tree play in the battle with the savages?

a) Lucky uses it as a weapon intentionally.
b) It becomes a symbol of the giants' anger.
c) The savages worship it as a sacred object.
d) Its accidental waving scares the enemies away.

8. How does the story resolve Lucky's internal conflict?

a) He confesses his cowardice and earns forgiveness.
b) His luck allows him to maintain his false heroic image.
c) He trains to become genuinely brave.
d) The giants eventually discover the truth.

9. Which theme is best supported by Lucky's accidental heroism?

a) "Honesty is always the best policy."

LIVEWORKSHEETS

b) "Hard work leads to success."

c) "Perception can outweigh reality."

d) "Nature is stronger than humanity."

10. What ironic lesson does the chapter convey?

a) True bravery requires years of training.

b) Giants are easily fooled by human tricks.

c) Animals respect humans who show kindness.

d) Luck and clever deception can substitute for real courage.

LIVEWORKSHEETS