The Lion and the Mouse

Once upon a time, a great lion was sleeping in the forest. A little mouse ran over his nose and woke him up.

The lion was very angry. He caught the tiny mouse with his big paw.
"How dare you wake me up!" roared the lion. "I will eat you!"
"Please, Mr. Lion," cried the mouse. "Let me go. One day I will help you."
The lion laughed. "Ha! You are too small to help me." But he let the mouse go.

A few days later, the lion was caught in a hunter's net. He roared and roared, but he couldn't escape. The little mouse heard him and ran to help. The mouse chewed through the net with his tiny teeth and set the lion free.

"You were right, little mouse," said the lion. "Thank you for saving me!"
