

Listening - Infinitives

Listen to the following conversations and fill in the blanks with the corresponding infinitive. Remember to write to before the verb.

Conversation 1

hear	see	leave
------	-----	-------

Man: Jess, I am sorry _____ you are leaving us.

Woman: Yeah, I will miss this place.

Man: Where are you going next?

Woman: I am going back to college to get my PhD.

Man: Well, we will miss you.

Woman: Thanks. I am sad _____ this place, but I am excited for a new start.

Man: Well, we are sad _____ you go, but best of luck with your studies.

Woman: Thanks. I appreciate that.

Conversation 2

lose	say	win	hear
------	-----	-----	------

Woman: How was the game?

Man: It was good. I am happy _____ we finally won.

Woman: Oh, great. I am glad _____ that.

Man: Yeah, it was nice _____ for a change.

Woman: Yeah, it's no fun _____ Man: It certainly is not.

Conversation 3

stick	find	lose	say
-------	------	------	-----

Woman: So, how is the diet going?

Man: Not good. It is so hard _____ weight.

Woman: I know. It is never easy _____ to a diet.

Man: Also, I am very busy, so it is hard _____ time to exercise.

Woman: Well, don't give up. You can do it.

Man: That's easy for you _____. You never gain weight.

Conversation 4

have	find	go	get	go	be
------	------	----	-----	----	----

Woman: How was the mall? Did you have fun hanging out with your friends?

Man: No, it was really crowded and almost impossible _____ a place to sit.

Woman: Yeah, it gets really busy on the weekend.

Man: Yeah, it's better _____ on the weekdays. But it's no fun _____ then.

Woman: Why? There are no crowds, so it is easy _____ a table at the food court.

Man: True, but it's no fun _____ the only one there.

Woman: You have a point. Sometimes, it's almost too quiet _____ fun.